

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

GREENTOWN.

Mrs. Belle W. has moved to Akron. W. H. Miller will move to Akron this week.

A great many from this vicinity will attend the county fair this week. Albert and William Stansfeld and families, of Brimfield, were the guests of W. F. Bean Sunday.

Farmers are busy cutting corn. It is a good crop but has been damaged some by the early frost.

Daniel Heffer is building a house on his old farm which he purchased from D. J. Wise last spring.

The H. B. Camp Co. has been running day and night for some time. They ship from 1 to 15 car loads of ware daily.

We are glad to again see our friend George Krehbaum in town. He has been confined to his bed for a long time.

PARIS.

Mrs. Josi-h Clapper is on the sick list with typhoid fever.

Mr. Calvin Waltz of Tolapahok, died of typhoid fever and was buried on last Thursday.

Mr. David Mott is wearing a pleasant countenance because of the arrival of a daughter in the home.

DIED IN BLACK DAMP.

While Fighting a Mine Fire Five Men Are Suffocated.

ATTEMPTED TO REACH THE AIR.

Miners Run Into a Bank of Unsuspected Deadly Gas—Not a Man Escaped—Four Bodies Have Been Recovered—Ignorant Huns Had Fired the Vein.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 29.—Five men met a horrible death from black damp, the after accumulation of a fire, in the Jermyn No. 1 mine near Rendham. The dead are:

Isaac Watkins, fire boss, 55 years old, wife and one child, Rendham.

William Tompkins, company man, 32 years, single, boarded with Watkins.

Joseph Smith, company man, 25 years, wife and one child, Madsen.

John Gallagher, company man, 42 years, wife and seven children, Minkooka.

William Franklin, company man, 26 years, wife, Rendham.

The bodies of all but Watkins were discovered by a gang of men, who went into the mine with supplies for combating the fire. Since last Tuesday the fire has been raging in the mine. The men who lost their lives represented one shift. They went on duty at 3 o'clock and nobody suspected their untimely discovery of the bodies. Not a man in the party survived to tell the story. In the case of each body the head pointed toward the shaft, indicating that they had groped and struggled toward the shaft and fresher air while suffocation was overtaking them.

When the catastrophe was discovered word was passed to the surface and the excitement was intense. Gangs of men were lowered on the mine carriages.

They were found from one to three rods apart. The scene at the head of the shaft was tragical, while wives, mothers and children in frenzied fight for a sight of the bodies. The colliery employed about 300 hands. The mine has three veins.

On Tuesday of last week a gang of ignorant Hungarian miners set off a bank of gas in the "Digwoods" counter. Nobody was injured by the explosion. The burst of flame ignited the coal in the counter, and an attempt to extinguish the flames was begun. The presence of the deadly black damp was not known, and no fear of a widespread blaze until Monday.

The spread of the flames was then found to be beyond the efforts to subdue them by ordinary process, and the order was given to close the mine. A systematic "fire fight" was started.

SPAINS REPLY SOON EXPECTED.

DeLome Slipped Back Into Washington and Saw Day.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The Spanish minister, Dupuy de Lome, has arrived here somewhat unexpectedly from Lenox, where he is spending the summer with his family. He reached Washington Monday noon, and, later in the day, called at the department and saw Assistant Secretary of State Day. His presence in the city was not made known by the department, but it has finally leaked out. The legation is closed for the summer, and the minister took temporary quarters in an uptown apartment house. He expected also to call on Secretary Sherman.

It is said by officials that the minister's visit has no special significance at this time. There appears to be no doubt, however, that the visit related to some extent to recent developments at Madrid in connection with Minister Woodford's interview with the Spanish minister for foreign affairs, the Duke of Salazar.

The presence of Mr. Dupuy de Lome led to conjecture that Spain's answer to the recent views presented by Minister Woodford was about to be submitted. It can be positively stated, however, that no answer has been made, and that up to the present time the answer has not been framed. It would not be a surprise, however, if it were determined upon at any time in the near future, and it is thought that Minister Dupuy de Lome's visit is so timed as to permit him to be at the capital in case any development in the way of answer or otherwise occurred at Madrid. The only manner in which an answer could be agreed upon is at a cabinet council attended by the queen regent. The queen has arrived at Madrid. Her arrival gave the first opportunity for definite action, and this probably had some part in the minister's return to Washington at this time.

CANADA MAKING THE TROUBLE.

Foster Bell was England Will Participate in Seal Conference.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—No further advice from Ambassador Hay relative to the Berlin sea conference, to be held in this city in October, have been received by Hon. John W. Foster, who conducted "the negotiations on behalf of the United States." Mr. Foster reiterates his statement that Great Britain will keep her engagement and that the conference will be held.

The present hitch he attributes to the objections raised by the Dominion of Canada. The date of the conference, which will occur some time in October, he thinks, will be fixed as soon as Prof. Thompson, one of the English experts, who is now on the ocean, arrives in London.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes another interview which its Paris correspondent has had with M. Pierre Botkine, the Russian commissioner to the Berlin sea conference, in which M. Botkine is quoted as saying he has not received any notification of the Marquis of Salisbury's objection to Russia and Japan being represented at the conference.

On the other hand, the Russian official expressed the opinion that such an attitude upon the part of the Marquis of Salisbury would not delay the conference at Washington, which would be held just as if nothing had happened to change the original plans, only the British ambassador to the United States, Sir Julian Pauncefote, would be recalled, which, he added, was most regrettable.

In conclusion, M. Botkine reiterated the necessity for "protection to prevent the total extermination of the seals."

Try Grain—Try Grain—O!

Ask your grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. The price of coffee, 15c and 25c per package. Sold by all grocers.

Consumption is the natural result of a neglected cold. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures coughs, bronchitis, asthma, and all lung troubles down to the very borderland of consumption.

CAPTURED BY BANDITS.

Son of a Wealthy Toledo Lawyer and His Traveling Companion Disappear in Europe—Young Lady Also Missing. Demands For Ransom.

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 28.—Hon. E. W. Tolerton, one of the wealthiest attorneys in this city, is invoking the powers of this country and Switzerland to aid him in solving a peculiar mystery. Since last June his 20-year-old son, Harry, has been traveling in southern Europe with Prof. D. J. Holmes of Allegheny college, Meadville, Pa. On Sept. 8 a letter was received from them in which acknowledgment of the receipt of money was made. They stated that the sum sent would be sufficient to take them to Berlin, where they were to enter the university.

Nothing further was heard until the 22d, when a peremptory demand by cable came for $1,000. Mr. Tolerton, alarmed, at once called to secure what was the matter, and also cabled the United States consul. The money was ordered forwarded to Cologne. The consul's reply was unsatisfactory, but that purporting to come from the sons was of such a character as to at once convince the father that it came from neither his son nor the professor.

On the 23d another demand came, and on the 24th, Holmes, requesting the immediate cabling of $200 and the balance by mail to Lucerne.

Meanwhile Mr. Tolerton cabled a relative at Leipzig, asking her to go to Lucerne at once and investigate. She cabled that she would go and again cabled when she would start, and that she would send a message as soon as she reached Lucerne. Since that time, although she should have been in Lucerne, at the latest, two days ago, no the remotest trace can be secured of the young lady. Assistant Secretary of State Day wired Mr. Tolerton that he had cabled the United States minister at Bern and the consul at Lucerne and Lucerne to investigate fully.

Although hundreds of dollars have been spent cabling all over Switzerland, not a trace can be received of the missing tourists or the lady. It is believed they have fallen in with bandits or sharpers and are being held for the extortion of money, as Mr. Tolerton is known to be very wealthy.

A dispatch from Meadville, Pa., says: Prof. Daniel J. Holmes, reported missing in Switzerland, is a son of Dr. Daniel J. Holmes of Evanston, Ill. (Chicago address, "Halstead M. E. church.") He is also a nephew of Dr. David H. Wheeler, ex-president of Allegheny college, this city. He came to Allegheny college in September, 1896, occupying the Latin chair until early in June, when his health failing he was arranged to make a European trip with Mr. Tolerton, a student, whose home is in Toledo, expecting to spend the coming winter in the vicinity of Rome. Dr. Holmes is supposed by his father to be in Italy at this time. His age is 25 years, and he is a young man of unusual education and ability, but rather delicate health.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 28.—Upon completion of her new barn next Saturday night, Mrs. W. E. D. Stokes, the millionaire horsewoman of New York, intends to give a well colored dance, to which she has invited a large number of her eastern friends. Five hundred of Lexington's most prominent colored people have been invited and prizes have been offered for several contests which will invite strong competition.

One hundred dollars will be given best cakewalk couple, $100 for best buck dance and $50 for best dressed colored person.

PROTEST OF FOREIGNERS.

They Denounce Authorities All Around For Lattimer Shooting.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 28.—A mass meeting of the Germans and Poles protested against the Lattimer shooting. Resolutions were adopted denouncing the action of the sheriff and deputies and calling upon the workmen to vote with the Socialist Labor party to secure the redress of wrongs. A prohibition of the sending of troops to Hazleton, and against the payment of bills for their maintenance by the state.

MARTIN IS CENSURED.

Lucerne Jury Says Lattimer Shooting Was Unnecessary.

BUT TWO JURORS DISAGREED.

The Verdict Charges the Sheriff With Intercepting the Marchers—Says They Were Peaceable on a Public Highway. Four Jurors Joined in the Censure.

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 28.—The coroner's jury which investigated the death of the striking miners at Lattimer met in Deputy Coroner Gowman's office and after an hour's deliberation rendered the following verdict:

"That from the circumstances of the case and the evidence offered the said Clement Placock and others came to their deaths by gunshot wounds on Sept. 10, 1897, at the hands of Sheriff James Martin and his deputies, and in this we, the jury, do all agree, and we, Philip J. Boyle, Thomas T. Thomas, Barton Freas and Peter McKiernan of this jury, do further say that the said Clement Placock, with others, was marching peaceably and unarmed on the public highway, that they were intercepted by the said Sheriff Martin and his deputies and mercilessly shot to death, and we do further find that the killing was unnecessary and could have been avoided without serious injury to either person or property, and we find finally that the killing was wanton and unjustifiable, but in this we, George J. Maue and F. J. McNeal of this jury, do not concur, and we, the jury, do further say that there was such strong suspicion of unlawful violence at the hands of person or persons unknown to this jury as to make this inquest necessary."

ANOTHER BLOODY RIOT.

Affray Over Hazleton Trouble Results in the Fatal Injury of Nine Men. Two Score Were Injured in an Early Morning Row.

GIRARDVILLE, Pa., Sept. 28.—At least nine men received fatal injuries and possibly two score others were more or less seriously wounded in a bloody riot here. The battle was the outcome of a quarrel over the Hazleton troubles. Thirty-six men are known to have been wounded and about 50 more being secreted by their friends, who fear they will be sent to jail.

Twelve of the ringleaders were brought before Justice Elias Klesinger and ten before Justice H. B. Johnson. All were charged with assault with intent to kill, housebreaking and rioting, and were held in heavy bail for court. Many more warrants have been issued, but have not been served as yet.

Dr. Charles Schlesman attended to 22 of the wounded, none of whom, he says, will die. Dr. William Monaghan and James Donaghy attended to 14 others, and how many the other physicians cared for is not known. Three other men have been reported dead, but this cannot be verified as yet, on account of the uncommunicative nature of the participants.

The story of the riot is as follows: Several hundred Poles boarded at William Calacabage's hotel on Second street. Joseph Cavendish is proprietor of a hotel at the east end of town, where several hundred more Poles make their headquarters. Bad blood has always existed between them, and the record of the trouble at Hazleton embittered them still more. Last night matters came to a crisis. Calacabage, it is charged, and his followers to the number of several hundred armed themselves with guns, revolvers, knives, axes, and clubs, marched to Cavendish's hotel, where several hundred of their enemies were celebrating payday.

The Cavendish men ascertained that their foes were marching on them, and, arming themselves hurriedly, awaited their arrival. After a demonstrative march the Calacabage contingent arrived and immediately stormed the saloon.

Then a bloody battle ensued. The men fought like demons, the shooting was fast and furious—axes, knives, clubs and other weapons were used with deadly effect. The battle lasted almost an hour, when the Calacabage gang was routed, leaving their wounded behind.

Everything in the house was smashed and the floors were strewn with wounded men.

The walls were bespattered with blood and shreds of human flesh. After the routed rioters had returned to their headquarters the Cavendish gang marched themselves to the saloon and armed their enemies' rendezvous, where a battle still bloodier than the first ensued. The police force and the constables of the surrounding region were called to the rioting scene, but were unable to cope with the rioting horde, who continued hostilities until morning.

BUCKS WANT THE GIRLS.

Indians Refuse to Allow Them to Go to School.

POCAHELLO, Ind., Sept. 28.—Two companies of United States cavalry from the Boise barracks have been sent to the Fort Hall Indian agency, at Roscoe fork, to quell the anti-school riots there.

About 100 of the young bucks have determined that the girls shall not go to school, and in this they are backed up by the old squaws. Every girl over 9 years old is claimed by some buck as his wife. The Indian police have been set upon, beaten up and their arms taken from them. Agent Irwin, finding his police powerless, called for troops.
